Vision
To provide leadership for family and population research

Mission
- Promote cutting-edge, empirically-based and policy-relevant research
- Provide trainings in social science research
- Foster collaborations among academics and policy makers

International Advisory Board, 2015-2018
Charles Hirschman (Chair)
University of Washington

Paul Cheung
National University of Singapore

Frank Furstenberg
University of Pennsylvania

Gavin Jones
Australian National University

Wolfgang Lutz, Vienna Institute of Demography, Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration

James Raymo
University of Wisconsin-Madison

Donald Treiman, UCLA

Linda Waite, University of Chicago

Brenda Yeoh
National University of Singapore

Yi Zeng, Duke University, Peking University

Centre for Family and Population Research (CFPR)

Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences
National University of Singapore

Ventus
(University Campus Infrastructure)
Level 3, Unit #03-01
8 Kent Ridge Drive, Singapore 119246

Email: cfpr@nus.edu.sg

Website
Facebook
Twitter
The Centre for Family and Population Research (CFPR) funded by NUS in 2014, is an interdisciplinary centre in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences. It is dedicated to the scientific advancement of research and training in the study of trends, determinants, and consequences of family and population changes, particularly in Asia.

The CFPR aims to stimulate dialogue and foster cross-disciplinary collaboration between students, researchers, practitioners, and policy makers. The goal is to contribute to empirically based understanding and policymaking on critical issues related to the family and population resilience. The Centre adopts life course and internationally comparative perspectives.

Steering Committee Members

Director
Professor Jean Yeung
(Department of Sociology and Asia Research Institute)

Deputy Directors
Professor John Ham
(Department of Economics)
Professor Catherine Tang
(Department of Psychology)
Associate Professor Thang Leng Leng
(Department of Japanese Studies)

Other Members
Associate Professor Liu Haoming
(Department of Economics)
Associate Professor Mohamad Maznah
(Department of Malay Studies)
Dr Feng Qiushi
(Department of Sociology)
Dr Vincent Chua
(Department of Sociology)

Main Research Themes:
- Fertility and Marriage, Family Policies
- Aging and Health
- Children and Youth Development
- Intergenerational Relations and Transfers
- Changing Family Living Arrangements and Family Values in Asia
- Migration and Integration
- Human Capital and Labor Market
- Gender Relations

Research Activities:
- Recruit top family and population scholars and students to build a critical mass of expertise in NUS
- Provide seed grants for research
- Provide visiting fellowships to international scholars in family and population studies
- Various research projects on family and population topics
- Organise thematic symposia and international conferences
- Organise regular seminar series and workshops on family demography and population topics

Training Program
The CFPR provides short and effective training sessions on social research conducted by top quality faculty members on NUS campus.

The training sessions aim to strengthen research and practice capacity and enhance on-the-job human capital. Participants will receive a certificate of attendance from NUS.

Competitive merit-based scholarships are available for NUS full time students.

Inaugural sessions started in May 2015. For details on schedule and course fee, please visit CFPR website: www.fas.nus.edu.sg/cfpr

Postdoctoral & Research Fellows
Applications are invited for postdoctoral & research fellow positions at CFPR. The positions are intended for outstanding active researchers to work on research projects on family and population issues.

CFPR Research Scholarship For PhD Candidates
Starting from the year 2015, the Centre offers two scholarships each academic year. The scholarships are awarded to outstanding PhD candidates interested in completing research on family and demographic topics.

Student Internship
CFPR provides student internship for local and international exchange students to gain practical working experience in providing research and administrative support to the Centre.

Interns are able to engage in research undertaken by the Centre and work under the direct supervision of the Centre’s research staff.