

The Chinese in Southeast Asia Research Group

Department of Chinese Studies

Introduction

The Chinese in Southeast Asia Research Group in the Department of Chinese Studies is set up with the support of the department to promote research in Southeast Asia, which is regarded as one of the key areas that strategic to its future development and offers ample opportunities for collaboration with international research partners. As an interdisciplinary research group, the Chinese in Southeast Asia research group focuses research on various issues related to history, religion, literature, linguistics, politics and other cultural and socio-economic issues of Southeast Asia Chinese.

The group was officially formed in late August 2007. Members of the group consist of our existing faculty members and graduate students who involve in the teaching and research of Southeast Asia Chinese. To date, the group has held several monthly seminars, inviting visiting scholars and researchers to share their research findings in the respective fields, in addition to the regular meetings among staff and students to exchange scholarly views. It also plans to collaborate with local academic associations in organizing conferences and other academic activities. Convening an international conference is part of the long-term plan of the group. We hope the research group would not only serve as a mechanism to stimulate more research effort from our faculty members and students and to facilitate research activities in the department,, but also become a platform to develop the research strength and capability of the department and enhance its academic standing in the international academic arena .

新加坡国立大学中文系在 2007 年 8 月成立“东南亚研华人研究群”，宗旨在于推广和深化本区域华人社会与文化的研究，作为其未来发展的其中一个主要方向和策略。我们也希望籍研究群的活动，加强与国际学界的交流与合作，提供更多机会开展更多元化的研究项目。作为一个跨学科的研究群，我们的研究领域涵盖了和东南亚地区华人的历史、宗教、文学、语言、政治和其他有关的文化与社会经济课题。研究群的成员包括从事东南亚华人研究与教学的现任教授、研究员和研究生。自成立至今，除了本系师生每个月的定期交流外，研究群还举办了许多研讨会和讲座，邀请来自各地的访问学者和研究人员分享他们的研究成果。我们也和本地一些学术团体联办研讨会，而举办大型的国际研讨会则是研究群长期的计划之一。我们希望通过研究群的活动，促进本系师生的研究热忱与活动，强化本系的研究实力，成为国际学界在东南亚华人研究领域的一个重镇。
