RULES FOR WAN BOO SOW (CHINESE STUDIES MINOR) PRIZE 雲茂潮中文系副修奨

In 2008, the family of the late Mr Wan Boo Sow pledged an endowment gift of $250,000 to set up the Wan Bow Sow Prize Award fund in his honour. The gift purpose is to recognize academic excellence for the undergraduates of the Department of Chinese Studies. The pledge of endowed gift was subsequently increased to $500,000 between 2012 and 2014 and has been fulfilled. The Department of Chinese Studies is administering the fund. The Wan Boo Sow (Chinese Studies Minor) Prize is one of the prizes established under the Wan Boo Sow Prize Award in 2014 and is governed by the following conditions:

1. Subject to rule 2 below, four awards will be given out annually as follows:
   (a) A cash prize of $1,000 will be awarded to the best performing student in the graduating cohort who has a minor in Chinese Studies
   (b) A cash prize of $1,000 will be awarded to the best performing student in the graduating cohort who has a minor in Chinese Language
   (c) A cash prize of $1,000 will be awarded to the best performing student in the graduating cohort who has a minor in Chinese Translation
   (d) A cash prize of $700 will be awarded to the second best performing student in the graduating cohort who has a minor in Chinese Translation

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Minor</th>
<th>Awards</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Chinese Studies</td>
<td>$1,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Chinese Language</td>
<td>$1,000</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| Chinese Translation  | 1st prize: $1,000
                     | 2nd prize: $700 |

2. No awards will be made unless there are candidates of sufficient merit.

3. The Prize shall be awarded by FASS Board of Examiners on the recommendation of the Head of the Department of Chinese Studies.

4. The primary criterion is the SJAP (average grade point of all minor modules read).

5. The CAP shall be used as the tie-breaker.

6. The successful recipients shall have high proficiency in the Chinese and English languages.

7. This gift shall be governed by the University Statutes and Regulations, specifically, Statute 7 on Gifts to the University and the corresponding Regulation.