

LANGUAGE PRIZES 2010/2011

The prizes were set up in AY2009-2010 to honour the achievements of top students in the Chinese, German, Japanese, Korean, Malay and Thai language programmes. These prizes are funded by donations. Awardees will be awarded book prizes. The prizes aim to recognize top students who have performed consistently well and to encourage the students to continue with their language learning efforts. The Centre would congratulate the following students who have received the award for 2010/2011

Chinese:
Tang Dat Hanh

"Receiving the Chinese Language Book Prize at the same time as my graduation is really a great and memorable event of my university life. After years of hard working, my efforts have been compensated and with the book prize, I can buy a number of favourite books, many of which are now best-selling, to reinvest and upgrade myself further in the years to come".

Japanese:
Lim Boon Loong

"It is an honour to receive the FASS Best Student in Japanese Language award. I am really glad that I could do all my sensei proud. I shall continue to do my best and hope to make bigger progress in my learning."

Japanese:
Tang Guan Wei Alex

"Receiving the CLS Japanese Language Prize has been a tremendous honour and the highlight of student years in NUS. I have to thank the professional and dedicated staff of CLS for its well-planned curriculum and effective but highly enjoyable classes that have given me the firm foundation and skills necessary for effective communication in Japanese. The three years have truly been a most enriching and remarkable learning experience".
