Ms Linda HUNG has been teaching French since 1995, after having obtained a Masters degree (with Honors) in teaching French as a foreign language from University Paris V-Rene Descartes.

From 1995 to 1997, she started her career in Taiwan, her hometown. She arrived in Singapore in December 1997 where she continued to be a French teacher in Alliance francaise of Singapore (1998-2003) and NUS (2001-2003). She enriched her career with another experience in Alliance francaise of Shanghai, China where she worked as pedagogy coordinator (2004-2007). Recently returned in Singapore since January 2008, she chooses to continue in NUS her passion for teaching and for French culture.
