

Selected Collaborative Activities

TIME / LOCATION	ACTIVITIES
9 January 2009, Orchard Hotel, Singapore	The Third Joint Economics Symposium of Five Leading East Asian Universities: Changing Dynamics of Asian Economic Growth and Re-alignment of Economic Links An initiative by Yonsei University, working together with Fudan University, University of Hong Kong, Keio University and NUS, the symposium was organised by the Singapore Centre for Applied and Policy Economics (SCAPE).
13 to 14 January 2009, Siem Reap, Cambodia	Crossing Rivers Chaired by Associate Professor John Miksic of the Southeast Asian Studies Programme, this conference was supported by the Centre for Khmer Studies and the Rockefeller Foundation.
14 to 15 January 2009, Asia Research Institute, Singapore	Emergent Science and Technology Studies in Southeast Asia This conference was a collaboration between the Asia Research Institute, University of Sydney, University of Taiwan and Science, Technology and Society Cluster, with support from the NUS Humanities and Social Sciences Research Fund.
18 to 19 February 2009, FASS, Singapore	Inequalities & Disparities in Globalized Asia This forum was jointly held by the Global Cities Research Cluster, Department of Sociology, Asian Journal of Social Science, Department of Japanese Studies and the Centre for Study of Social Stratification and Inequality, Tohoku University in Japan.
18 to 19 February, Korea University, Korea	Sociological Approaches to Globalizing Asia (Second round of Waseda University's international graduate workshop) This workshop was part of Waseda University's Global COE Programme: Global Institute for Asian Regional Integration (GIARI). The Department of Sociology presented a well-received paper, "Imaginings, Identity, Integration: Asia in the Minds of Singapore Students", that has been selected as a GIARI working paper.
12 to 13 March 2009, FASS, Singapore	Pacific Worlds in Motion II: An Interdisciplinary Conference on Asian Migrations This graduate student conference was jointly organised by the FASS Migration Cluster and Department of Geography, NUS; and Green College, St. John's College & the Faculty of Graduate Studies, The University of British Columbia.
12 March 2009, Kent Ridge Guild House, NUS	First Research Symposium of Offender Rehabilitation This symposium was jointly organised by the Department of Social Work and the Singapore Prisons Service, in association with the School of Criminal Justice, Rutgers University, Newark, New Jersey.
19 to 20 May 2009, FASS, Singapore	Religion and the State in Southeast Asia: Past and Present Chaired by Professor Michael Aung-Thwin (Visiting Professor, Southeast Asian Studies Programme (SEASP)), this workshop was organised by the SEASP, Department of History and Religion Cluster, NUS.
17 to 19 June 2009	The 1965-1966 Indonesian Killings Revisited Jointly organised by Dr Douglas Kammen (Southeast Asian Studies Programme, NUS), Professor Anthony Reid (Asia Research Institute, NUS), and Dr Katherine McGregor (Department of History, Melbourne University), this conference is funded by generous grants from FASS, the Asia Research Institute, and the Asia Pacific Futures Research Network in Australia.