The Singapore Journal of Tropical Geography (SJTG) is an international, multidisciplinary journal for scholarship on tropical environments, localities and their connections.

Every year since 2013, the SJTG scholarship has recognized an FASS Geography student who is academically bright and financially needy.

Value of award

The Scholarship is valued at $3000 and is tenable for 1 year.

Application is open to students who

- are Singapore citizens or Permanent Residents,
- are Geography single/double majors (Geography as first major),
- are entering Year 3 of study (with a minimum of 80 MCs), and
- have a minimum CAP of 4.0 at the point of application.

Application period

The scholarship is now open for application. All hard copy documents are to be submitted by 14 July 2017. Late applications or incomplete forms will not be considered.

Application details

For application details please express your interest and email Nura Aziz at sjtg@nus.edu.sg.