

Seminars in 2004

16 December 2004

The French Conquest of Vietnam and the Exile of Vietnamese Prisoners of War
Dr Richard Derderian, Department of History, National University of Singapore

22 October 2004

Migration and Marriage: Labouring Women in Bengal in late Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Centuries

Dr Samita Sen, Department of History, University of Calcutta
South Asian Studies Programme & Department of History Joint Seminar

1 September 2004

Scholarship and the cultural imaginary: Japanese portrayals of religion in Manchuria, 1900-1945

Dr Thomas DuBois, Department of History, National University of Singapore

25 August 2004

Historicizing the Haram: the challenge of a princess' memoir

Dr Ruby Lai, Assistant Professor in History and Anthropology and Associate Director,
Program for the Study of Women, Gender and Sexuality, Johns Hopkins University
South Asian Studies Programme and Department of History Joint Seminar

18 August 2004

In defence of the fragment, once more: the challenge of 'subaltern studies'

Professor Gyanendra Pandey, Professor of Anthropology and History, John Hopkins University

11 August 2004

When did the British Empire reach its peak?

Professor Keith Jeffery
Professor of Modern History, University of Ulster in Northern Ireland

13 March 2004

'Gandhi and the Question of Secularism and Communalism in India'

Professor Bipan Chandra, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi
South Asian Studies Programme and Department of History Joint Seminar

17 February 2004

Cosmopolis & Nation in Central Southeast Asia
Professor Anthony Reid, Director, Asia Research Institute

7 January 2004

Recognition and Ethnic Minorities in France
Dr Richard Derderian, Department of History, National University of Singapore