AIMS & OBJECTIVES

Logic is the study of argument and reasoning. This course introduces propositional and predicate logic using truth-tables and trees, as well as some inductive and modal logic, and discusses the application of these to philosophical questions about time, existence and logic itself.

ASSESSMENT

Quizzes 15%
Mid-Term Test 35%
Final Exam 50%

BOOK